Ryerson University. Her family are parishioners at Our Lady Queen of the World Parish, Richmond Hill.

Fok-Han Leung, MD CC P MHSc was elected to the Newman Foundation Board in 2016. Dr. Leung is a family physician practicing general family medicine, inner city health and low risk obstetrics out of St. Michael's Hospital. He is also the Associate Course Director of CPPD (Community, Population and Public Health - undergraduate medical course), and the Associate Program Director (Evaluation and Assessment) for the University of Toronto family medicine residency. He was the previous physician lead of the St. Michael's Health Centre at 80 Bond and has been involved with the implementation of multiple technologies at his clinic and department. He has a strong passion in supporting student leadership.

Hilary Harmon Ryall was elected to the Newman Foundation Board in 2018. She works at the University of St. Michael's College in the University of Toronto, where she leads St. Mike's Continuing Education division. Born in Indiana, Hilary earned degrees from the University of Virginia (BA Economics) and the University of Rochester (MA English) and, since immigrating to Canada, has studied Theology at Regis College. A Lector at her home parish (St. Michael's Cathedral), during the week she attends mass at St. Basils and Newman. Hilary has been a member of the Newman Center community since 2014, when an MA Theology classmate invited her to the Tuesday Soup and Bagel Lunch. It was the best lunch ever.

Michael Ryall, PhD was elected to the Newman Foundation Board in 2018. He presently is the Professor of Strategic Management at the Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto. He holds a BS in agricultural economics from North Carolina State University, an MBA from the University of Chicago, and a PhD in economics from UCLA. After working for over a decade in business, with roles ranging from CFO, Division GM, consultant, and entrepreneur, Michael obtained his PhD in game theory. His research interest is in the formal theoretical foundations of business strategy. This is a small but rapidly growing research area that uses mathematical models to analyze issues relating to organizational performance. Most recently, he turned his attention to social ontology - the philosophy of social objects (e.g., money, marriages, and firms). Michael converted to Catholicism in 2013. He is delighted to be a part of the terrific Newman Centre community.
