Feast of the Sacred Heart

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is one of the most popular Catholic devotions. Although it was beloved in previous centuries, Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in 1673, showing her a vision of the now-famous image of His Sacred Heart, surrounded by flames.

He said to her: “My Heart is so full of love for men that It can no longer contain the flames of Its burning love. I must discover to men the treasures of My Heart and save them from perdition.”

She was given the special mission to spread devotion to His Sacred Heart throughout the Church. Jesus gave St. Margaret Mary many promises associated with this devotion, and requested that a feast day in honor of His Sacred Heart be instituted on the Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi. In 1856, the Feast of the Sacred Heart was spread to the Universal Church, and in 1899 Pope Leo XIII solemnly consecrated all mankind to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, calling it “the great act” of his pontificate. Please consider supporting Newman Students monthly

THE NEWMAN FOUNDATION OF TORONTO

To help Newman Centre sustain its programs, we would like to encourage monthly giving to all those who believe that the Newman Centre provides a vibrant Catholic environment where students can flourish. The immediate benefit would be the reduction of our costs, and therefore we can benefit even more students.

As you can appreciate that monthly giving will create a reliable source of funds, it will allow us to better plan the Newman Campus programs. It will enable our supporters to donate in an affordable way. See what one of our student donors says about monthly giving:

I thought it would be fitting for me to contribute in a small way each month so that many other students can benefit from the good work of the Newman Centre. I encourage you to prayerfully consider regularly supporting the Newman Centre through Direct Deposit as well. God is never outdone in generosity!

- Natalie Doummar, a monthly contributor of the Newman Centre.

Would you willing to be a monthly donor? You can choose to make this gift online through our website or contact Samantha Koon via email: samantha.koon@newmentoronto.com

Thank you in advance for your trust and your investment in the Newman Centre!
