

The Newman
Foundation of Toronto

NEWMAN FOUNDATION OF TORONTO

BOARD OF DIRECTORS – 2022-2023

Fr. Mark Kolosowski Pastor & Executive Director, Newman Center Catholic Mission. Fr. Mark Kolosowski was born in Poland but came to Canada when he was 10 months old. After finishing high school in Mississauga, he decided to enter the seminary back in his hometown Lodz, in Poland. He was ordained at the age of 25 and worked in 2 parishes in Lodz. During this time, he also worked as a high school religion teacher. After serving in Poland as a priest for eight years, Fr. Mark came back to Canada and was appointed associate pastor at St. Barnabas Parish in Scarborough where he served for 3 years and worked closely with post-secondary volunteers and youth to successfully implement The Edge and LifeTeen programs.

During this appointment Fr. Mark was incardinated into the Archdiocese of Toronto. Soon after the incardination, Fr. Mark was made the administrator of Holy Spirit Parish for 6 months and then made associate Pastor in Penetanguishene for three months while waiting to start his appointment with Cardinal Thomas Collins as his assistant and Pontifical Master of Ceremonies. He has served in this capacity for the last three years. Fr. Mark has a Masters of Theology and a Licentiate in Practical Theology.

Catherine Pawluch J.D., DHS (President) was elected to the Newman Foundation Board in 2019. She is a partner in a business law firm with a global presence in more than 40 countries of the world. Her practice focuses on aviation law, competition, and foreign investment law. Catherine earned an MA in economics from McGill University, where she found her Catholic “spiritual home” at the McGill Newman Centre. She holds a law degree from Osgoode Hall Law School. In 2019, Catherine was honoured to have been invested in the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, whose purpose is to serve the Catholic Church and promote initiatives to preserve the Christian presence in the Holy Land. She serves as President of the Thomas More Lawyers’ Guild of Toronto and as a director of the Metropolitan Andrey Sheptytsky Institute Foundation, which supports the work of this Institute of Eastern Christian Studies at the University of St. Michael’s College in the University of Toronto. She is honoured to serve on the Newman Foundation, as it supports the academic and spiritual mission of the Newman Centre.

Fok-Han Leung, MD CCFP FCFP MHSc was elected to the Newman Foundation Board in 2016. Dr. Leung is a family physician practicing general family medicine and inner-city health out of St. Michael’s Hospital and an associate professor at the University of Toronto. He is also the Director of Health in Community curriculum in the MD program, and the Associate Program Director (Evaluation and Assessment) for the University of Toronto family medicine residency. He was the previous physician lead of the St. Michael's Health Centre. He has a strong passion in supporting student leadership.

Matthew Marquardt was elected to the Newman Foundation in 2019. Having served as a partner in one of the largest law firms in the world, he was recently blessed with appointment to the role of executive director at the St Monica Institute for Education and Evangelization of the Archdiocese of Toronto, while continuing as founder and president of the Catholic Conscience initiative for civic evangelization. Holding degrees in history and engineering from the University of Texas, and in law from the University of Washington, he has served as a police officer, aerospace engineer, and lawyer. Matthew is an active member of St Patrick's Parish in Toronto and serves on several secular and religious boards. He serves proudly as a Lay Associate of the Redemptorists.

Natalie Maggisano joined the Newman Foundation Board over a decade ago. She is currently Senior Manager of Organization Design in Human Resources at TD Bank. She supports Newman Centre with fundraising and various HR activities, including interviewing and selection of staff.

Patrick Douglas accepted a nomination to the Newman Foundation Board in 2020. He is excited to continue to support the mission of the Newman Centre after working as the Director of Human Resources and Operations at the Newman Centre for 17 years. Since 2018 he's been serving as the Associate Director of Family Life and Special Projects in the Archdiocese of Toronto's Office of Formation for Discipleship. Patrick is designated as a Certified Human Resources Leader and member of the Human Resources Professionals Association in Ontario, with a certificate from the University of Toronto. He also holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering Chemistry from Queen's University. He is currently studying in the Conjoint Certificate in Theological Studies program at St. Augustine's Seminary in Toronto. Patrick lives in Sutton, Ontario with his wife, Carissa, and 14 children – ages 1-18.