Happy New Year! After a very quiet Christmas we begin 2021 filled with many hopes and dreams for ourselves, our loved ones and the faith community. Last year has reminded us that everything is in God's hands and not our own. I hope and pray that we can all grow in confident trust in His merciful love and share it with others. Rosario Livatino, our Church's newest martyr used to say, "what matters is that we are believable." In other words, that we live what we profess. May we grow in the theological virtues of faith, hope and especially charity. The world needs an authentic witness of Christian love more than ever before. God bless, Fr Peter
