FAREWELL from Erin Kinsella
Director of Chaplaincy, Newman Centre.

Dear Newman community,

Thank you for the gift of the past seven years!!

To past and present students- the biggest joys I've had here have been the random (but deep) conversations, and the moments of humour and grace where I've seen the Lord move and somehow participated in that. What an incredible thing it is to be with you at a time in your lives when you're wrestling with some of the biggest questions that you'll ever have to answer. Your desire for holiness has inspired me in my own relationship with Jesus.

To the members of the parish (and wider!) Newman community- I'm so grateful for your love and support. It has been an absolute joy to see how much you love this place, your fellow parishioners, and all the students who cycle in and out. Your kindness to me has been such a gift.

And to the members of the staff team, both past and present- you have become like family to me, and I love you very much. I will miss seeing you every day, but the experiences we've navigated together have shaped me and will be times I'll treasure for the rest of my life. Even though Our Lord is calling me away so that I can work on my health at this time, please know that I'll be praying for you all. I am sad to leave, but I have much affection in my heart for this place and for everyone who is part of the Newman family. Please pray for me as well!
